

MATT FOWLER

Long Biography

Raised in the rolling hills of Muskogee Oklahoma, Matt Fowler is a singer/songwriter who loves to play acoustic guitar and is known for delivering powerful vocals.

In a world where country music is becoming ever more detached from the authentic realities of its fans, Matt stands out by digging deep into his American midwest roots and chasing songs that cut right to the heart. Although his musical style can be classified as Country/Americana, he enjoys playing popular music that ranges from the 60's to today's hits.

In 2015, Fowler began performing original music at his church in St. Augustine, Florida. Increasing requests eventually led to his first studio album titled Revitalize, a collection of gospel songs that reflect his more spiritual side.

Currently residing in St. Augustine, Florida, Fowler performs original and cover songs every weekend in various local venues with fellow guitarist, Richard White and Sue Tice on fiddle. Looking to expand his territory, he's teamed up with his father Billy Fowler on mandolin and cousin Brock Moore on bass guitar to form a family trio who performs all over the midwest.

Matt is currently working to earn enough of a following to allow more time on the road and in the studio. With the support of his beautiful wife and three children, Matt just may be on his way to a town near you.

info@mattfowlerlive.com | (904) 826-5227
www.mattfowlerlive.com/cover-artist